THE COMPANY

- GETEX Pty Ltd is a specialist consulting and testing company in Occupational Health & Safety, Occupational Hygiene and the Environment. It is a 100% owned and operated by highly experienced and qualified professionals who have been active in the industry for most of their working lives.

ACCREDITATION AND QUALITY SYSTEM

- GETEX is NATA accredited and complies with ISO/IEC 17025. We have a documented quality assurance system which incorporates client feed-back and expert peer review of all consultancy reports. The quality of our service delivery by our personnel is considered to be amongst the best in the industry, nevertheless we aim for continual improvement in all aspects of our consultancy and testing services, particularly reliability/reproducibility, fitness for intended purpose and on time delivery.

URGENT RESPONSE

- GETEX is customer service oriented and capable of responding at very short notice. Contact us and get an immediate response to urgent problems any time of day or night. We don't use answering services. You deal directly with experienced consultants who know the industry and who have the experience, authority and responsibility to respond to urgent and/or difficult issues quickly and effectively.

PHYSICAL RESOURCES

- GETEX owns much of their field monitoring equipment as this allows a rapid and effective response compared with renting. The use of in-house instrumentation ensures that the consultant is trained and familiar with it and that it is calibrated and appropriate for the task. Equipment is continually updated and includes an extensive range of portable monitoring, sampling and data logging apparatus for on-site indoor or outdoor situations.
